Miserden Primary School, Miserden, Gloucestershire, GL6 7JA.

Miserden School

Situated in the picturesque, historic Cotswold village of Miserden, Miserden Primary School is surrounded by natural outstanding beauty.

Making the most of its surroundings, the school has a weekly forest school in the local estate woods & boasts a new purpose built outdoor learning building as well as newly refurbished play equipment.

Complimenting the modern outdoor area, the school benefits from a modern hall and facilities & is pleased to offer healthy food, freshly cooked on the premises every day.

Centenary Celebrations

Here's to another 100 years!

As well as offering regular schooling, the school is also glad to offer a preschool facility, for children three years & over.

To fit in with modern, hectic schedules, the school offers a breakfast club and a variety of after school activities. There is also ample car parking space available such that pick up and drop off are stress free.

The school has a warm Christian family ethos & strong community links. We currently have places available.
