Dear Parents and Carers,

We are in the middle of a wonderful term and looking forward to Christmas. Class 1, as I type, are having fun with chocolate and visiting Cadbury World. Class 2 are enjoying their book "The Viewer" and making their own viewers. What a great imagination you all have!

Just to update you on my husband, Richard, he is recovering well. Thank you for all your prayers and best wishes and interest in his progress.

Best wishes,

Mrs Lucie Mitchell

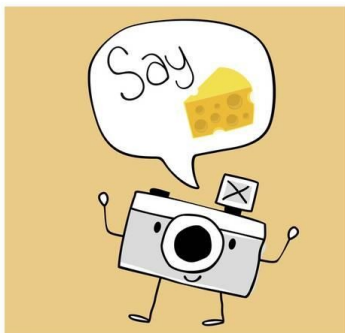

Acting Head Teacher

We hope that you were happy with the school photos that were taken by Lauren a couple of weeks ago. From what we saw they were great and bit more personal.

You should have all received a copy of your child/children's photos and Lauren has asked me to say that if you would like any photos by Christmas then please can she have your orders back by Friday December 7th.

You can still order up until Friday 14th December.

Please hand them into the office and Mrs Hughes will make sure that orders are passed on to Lauren.

Keep your eye out for Panto and Swimming Letters next week!

Thank you to all our pupils for participating in Sports Relief. A tremendous effort, raising an amazing £222.65.

Christmas Jumper Day:

Wear a Christmas Jumper to the Christmas Dinner - Donation bucket will be around to raise money for Save the Children.

Art Club:

During the months of January and February 2019 there will be no art club. After that it may run on a termly basis for Class 1 and Class 2 separately, so that we can run projects appropriate to each age group.

Christian Value of the term is ... Compassion ♥
